

St Botolph-without-Bishopsgate - a place of calm, sanctuary and God's love in the City

CHORAL MASS ON WEDNESDAYS from September 2020

Welcome to St Botolph-without-Bishopsgate.

Please keep a time of silence and prayer before the liturgy begins.

This booklet will be used once only – if you wish to keep it for future services please take it away with you and bring it back each time.

Please see today's Mass sheet for the readings, and information about the music being sung and played.

If this is your first visit, do please introduce yourself after the service.

Holy Communion and Coronavirus

Now we are once more permitted to hold services at St Botolph's, we are taking extra care to ensure that hygiene procedures are strictly observed by priest and people before and during the distribution of Holy Communion.

Face coverings are currently required by law to be worn by worshippers in church at all times, except at the point of receiving Communion. Those who are leading services, including the priest and the musicians, are exempt from wearing face coverings at some points during the service.

Church of England guidance affects several other aspects of the Mass:

The Peace: we ask members of the congregation to remain in their pew and to refrain from handshaking or other direct physical contact during the sharing of the peace. A nod, a smile or some other form of the shared peace of Christ will have to suffice for the time being.

At Communion: I will take all recommended precautions with the administration of Holy Communion, including frequent hand sanitisation. Congregation members are asked to sanitise their hands before receiving Communion, and to follow the one-way system marked out on the floor, maintaining two metres' distance from each other wherever possible. To maintain distancing from the musicians, on Wednesdays Communion will be given at the chancel step.

The Chalice: until further notice, Holy Communion will be offered in one kind only to all communicants. Bread and wine will be consecrated during the service, but the priest alone will take the wine. Communicants will receive the host (bread) only.

Receiving the host: again, until further notice, the host will not be given directly onto the tongue. All communicants must receive the host into their hands.

Thank you for your understanding. It is important to remember that the sacraments are means of grace and not of sickness, they are physically ministered, and we should take physical care. We continue to pray for all those affected by the virus, and for those caring for them.

We regret it is not possible to offer refreshments after services for the time being, but we look forward to a time when we will all be able to gather for Communion and refreshment in less restricted circumstances.

With God's love and blessing, Fr David

Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. ## Can you help us financially?

During the lockdown, St Botolph's was closed for three months. Even though we are now open for part of the day, our regular income is obviously taking rather a hit at this time, with the loss of service collections and alms boxes, as well as other normal income streams including Hall and Court hire. If you are someone who usually gives via the collection basket, and are not in financially difficult circumstances at present, might you consider giving by standing order or direct debit? Contact the Administrator at church@botolph.org.uk for details. One-off donations by PayPal via the link on the front page of our website www.botolph.org.uk would also be most welcome.
