

St Botolph-without-Bishopsgate - a place of calm, sanctuary and God's love in the City

SAID MASS ON WEEKDAYS: Eastertide 2021

Welcome to St Botolph-without-Bishopsgate.

Please keep a time of silence and prayer before the liturgy begins.

This booklet will be used once only – if you wish to keep it for future services please take it away with you and bring it back each time.

If this is your first visit, do please introduce yourself after the service.

Holy Communion and Coronavirus

We take extra care to ensure that hygiene procedures are strictly observed by priest and people before and during the distribution of Holy Communion.

Face coverings are currently required by law to be worn by worshippers in church at all times, except at the point of receiving Communion. Those who are leading services, including the priest and the musicians, are exempt from wearing face coverings at some points during the service.

Church of England guidance affects several other aspects of the Mass:

Singing: congregational singing is not yet permitted, so only the Choir will sing.

The Peace: we ask members of the congregation to remain in their pew and to refrain from handshaking or other direct physical contact during the sharing of the peace. A nod, a smile or some other form of the shared peace of Christ will have to suffice for the time being.

At Communion: I will take all recommended precautions with the administration of Holy Communion, including frequent hand sanitisation. Congregation members are asked to sanitise their hands before receiving Communion, and to follow the one-way system marked out on the floor, maintaining two metres' distance from each other wherever possible.

The Chalice: until further notice, Holy Communion will be offered in one kind only to all communicants. Bread and wine will be consecrated during the service, but the priest alone will take the wine. Communicants will receive the host (bread) only.

Receiving the host: again, until further notice, the host will not be given directly onto the tongue. All communicants must receive the host from the priest into their hands.

Thank you for your understanding. It is important to remember that the sacraments are means of grace and not of sickness, they are physically ministered, and we should take physical care. We continue to pray for all those affected by the virus, and for those caring for them.

We regret it is not possible to offer refreshments after services for the time being, but we look forward to a time when we will all be able to gather for Communion and refreshment in less restricted circumstances.

With God's love and blessing, Fr David

All We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Can you help us financially?

During the first lockdown, St Botolph's was closed for three months, and we are now in a further period of restrictions. Even though we are open for part of the day, our regular income is obviously taking rather a hit at this time, with the loss of service collections and alms boxes, as well as other normal income streams including Hall and Court hire. If you are not in financially difficult circumstances yourself at present, might you consider giving by standing order or direct debit? Ask the Administrator (church@botolph.org.uk) for details. Contactless donations can be made via the device at the back of church; donations by PayPal via the 'giving' link on our website www.botolph.org.uk would also be most welcome.
