St Botolph-without-Bishopsgate - a place of calm, sanctuary and God's love in the City

Welcome to St Botolph-without-Bishopgate.

Today we are using the Wednesday Choral Mass book.

*Fr David is away – in his absence we welcome as celebrant and preacher
Fr Peter McGeary, Vicar of St Mary's Cable Street.*

Setting: Missa 'O magnum mysterium'—Tomás Luis de Victoria c.1548-1611

Opening Hymn: NEH 50 (verses 1-3; tune 338)

From the eastern mountains pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom, to his humble home;
Stirred by deep devotion, hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward, guided by a star.

There their Lord and Saviour as an infant lay,
Wondrous Light that led them onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten nations from afar,
As they journey homeward by that guiding star.

Thou who in a manger once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory o'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the peoples, who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness of thy guiding star.

Gloria in excelsis: see the Mass book for translation of the Latin text

First Lesson: Isaiah 60: 1-6

Gradual: NEH 27 (verse 1)

How brightly shines the morning star!
With grace and truth from heav'n afar
Our Jesse tree now bloweth.
Of Jacob's stem and David's line,
For thee, my Bridegroom, King divine,

My soul with love o'erfloweth.
Thy word, Jesu, inly feeds us,
Rightly leads us, life bestowing,
Praise, O praise such love
o'erflowing.

Gospel Acclamation

*The refrain is sung first by the Cantor and then by all:

This verse is sung by the Cantor:

The peoples are gathered together and the kingdoms also to serve the Lord.

and the refrain is then repeated by all

Offertory Hymn: NEH 52

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness!
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his Name!
Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.
Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine:
Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on his shrine.
These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
He will accept for the name that is dear;
Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
Trust for our trembling and hope for our fear.

The first verse is repeated

Sanctus, Benedictus qui venit, & Agnus Dei: see the Mass book

Anthem during Communion:

Magi veniunt ab Oriente Jerosolymam, quaerentes et dicentes:
Ubi est qui natus est rex Judaeorum, cuius stellam vidimus?
Et venimus cum muneribus adorare Dominum.

*There came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying,
Where is he that is born King of the Jews, whose Star
we have seen? For we are come with gifts to worship the Lord.*

Mattins Responsory for Epiphany

Jacobus Clemens non Papa c. 1510-55

Closing Hymn: Hymn 49 (1st tune)

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.
Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall:
Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.
Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odours of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would his favour secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

The first verse is repeated

Organ music: Wie schon leuchtet der Morgenstern

—Johann Pachelbel 1653-1706

Fr David sustained an injury to his right foot in December. Unfortunately, this has not healed as anticipated, and has required minor surgery at St Thomas's Hospital. He is in good spirits, but is quite immobile and has been told that his foot needs total rest for a few weeks.

Can you help us financially?

Our regular income continues to take a hit owing to the knock-on effects of Covid, with a reduction in our normal income streams including Hall and Court hire and, although we are now able to take up collections in services again, these and alms box donations remain depressed as there are fewer people working in and visiting the City of London. If you are in a position to give St Botolph's any financial support at this time:

- Cash donations (outside service times) may be placed in the alms boxes, or handed to a member of staff at any time. If you are a UK taxpayer please complete a Gift Aid envelope so we can claim back a further 25% from HMRC.
- Card/contactless donations can be made at any time via the device on the table at the back of church, or this QR code, and can be Gift Aided.
- Credit card donations can be made via the link on our website, and can be Gift Aided.
